There was a [G]howl that night, a howling like they never [C]heard before
A [D]cry so loud old granddad almost [C]hit the door [D]
He said, "I [G]love this child as much as any one that she [C]ever bore,
But I [D]thank the Lord we won't be having any [G]more."

Then the [G]baby heard the sweetest sound he'd [C]ever heard
In [D]tones so beautiful he hung on [C]every word [D]
She sang, [G]"Hush, my love, granny's little dove is going to [C]take to the sky."
It was [D]on such a night he learned to fly like a [G]bird. [G]

Now the [C]years have passed and memories come and [G]go
He [C]hears that voice that rocked him gently [D]so [D7]
A [G]calm will descend and there's peace at the end of the [C]darkest night
Some- [D]times I cry, sometimes I fly like a [G]bird. [G]

Well, the [G]rain's gonna fall and the wind may blow on the [C]darkest night
Some- [D]times I cry, sometimes I fly like a [G]bird. [G]
